Appendix 1 – Bullying Report Form

Statement of Intent

Miers Court Primary School believes that all pupils are entitled to learn in a safe and supportive environment; this means being free from all forms of bullying behaviour. This policy outlines how instances of bullying are dealt with, including the procedures to prevent occurrences of bullying.

These strategies, such as learning about tolerance and difference as part of the school's curriculum, aim to promote an inclusive, tolerant and supportive ethos at the school.

The Education and Inspections Act 2006 outlines several legal obligations regarding the school's response to bullying. Under section 89, schools must have measures in place to encourage good behaviour and prevent all forms of bullying amongst pupils. These measures are part of the school's Behaviour for Conduct and Learning Policy, which is communicated to all pupils, school staff and parents.

All staff, parents and pupils work together to prevent and reduce any instances of bullying at the school. There is a zero-tolerance policy for bullying at the school.

1. Legal framework

This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following: -

- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Equality Act 2010
- Protection from Harassment Act 1997
- Malicious Communications Act 1988
- Public Order Act 1986
- Communications Act 2003
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Crime and Disorder Act 1998
- Education Act 2011
- DfE 2017 Preventing and tackling bullying
- DfE 2018 Sexual violence and sexual harassment between children in schools and colleges
- DfE 2018 Mental health and wellbeing provision in schools
- DfE 2021 Keeping children safe in education 2020
- DfE 2020 Sharing nudes and semi-nudes: advice for education settings working with young children and young people.

This policy operates in conjunction with the following school and Trust policies:-

- Behaviour for Learning and Conduct Policy
- Cyber Bullying Policy
- Whole School Safeguarding Policy
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health Policy
- Searching, Screening and Confiscation Policy
- Primary Relationships and Health Education Policy
- Exclusion Policy

2. Definitions

For the purpose of this policy 'bullying' is defined as persistent behaviour by an individual or group with the intention of verbally, physically or emotionally harming another person or group.

Bullying is generally characterised by: -

- Repetition: incidents are not one-offs; they are frequent and happen over a period of time
- Intent: the perpetrator(s) means to cause verbal, physical or emotional harm; it is not accidental
- Targeting: bullying is generally targeted at a specific individual or group
- Power imbalance: whether real or perceived, bullying is generally based on unequal power relations.

Vulnerable pupils are more likely to be the targets of bullying due to the attitudes and behaviours some young people have towards those who are different from themselves.

Vulnerable pupils may include, but are not limited to: -

- Pupils with SEND
- Pupils who are adopted
- Pupils suffering from a health problem
- Pupils with caring responsibilities

Pupils with certain characteristics are also more likely to be targets of bullying including, but not limited to:

- Pupils who are LGBTQ+ or perceived to be LGBTQ+
- Pupils from BAME background
- Pupils from socioeconomically disadvantaged backgrounds

3. Types of bullying

Many kinds of behaviour can be considered bullying and can be related to almost anything.

Teasing another pupil because of their appearance, religion, ethnicity, gender, sexual-orientation, home life, culture, disability or SEND are some of the types of bullying that can occur.

Bullying is acted out through the following mediums: -

- Verbally
- Physically
- Emotionally
- Online (cyber)

Racist bullying: Bullying another person based on their ethnic background, religion or skin colour. Racist bullying is a criminal offence under the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and Public Order Act 1986.

Homophobic bullying: Bullying another person because of their actual or perceived sexual orientation.

Transphobic bullying: Bullying based on another person's gender identity or gender presentation or for not conforming to dominant gender roles.

Sexist bullying: Bullying based on sexist attitudes expressed in a way to demean, intimidate or harm another person because of their sex or gender. Sexist bullying may sometimes be characterised by inappropriate sexual behaviours.

Sexual bullying: Bullying behaviour that has a physical, psychological, verbal or non-verbal sexual dimension/dynamic that subordinates, humiliates or intimidates another person. This is commonly underpinned by sexist attitudes or gender stereotypes.

Prejudicial bullying: Bullying based on prejudices directed towards specific characteristics, eg SEND or mental health issues.

Relational bullying: Bullying that primarily constitutes of excluding, isolating and ostracising someone – usually through verbal and emotional bullying.

Socioeconomic bullying: Bullying based on prejudices against the perceived social status of the victim, including, but not limited to, their economic status, their parents' occupations, their health or nutrition level, or the perceived 'quality' of their clothing or belongings.

4. Roles and responsibilities

The Local Academy Board (LAB) is responsible for: -

- Evaluating and reviewing this policy to ensure that it is not discriminatory
- The overall implementation of this policy
- Ensuring that the school adopts a tolerant and open-minded policy towards difference
- Ensuring the school is inclusive
- Analysing any bullying data to establish patterns and reviewing this policy in the light of these.

The Head of School is responsible for: -

- Reviewing and amending this policy, accounting for new legislation and government guidance, and using staff experience of dealing with bullying incidents in previous years to improve procedures
- Keeping a Bullying Report Form of all reported incidents, including which type of bullying has occurred, to allow for proper analysis of the data collected. This can be done through CPOMS
- Analysing the data in the bullying record at termly intervals to identify trends, so that appropriate measures to tackle them can be implemented
- Arranging appropriate training for staff members.

Deputy Head, Assistant Head and Phase Leaders are responsible for: -

- Corresponding and meeting with parents where necessary
- Providing a point of contact for pupils and parents, when more serious bullying incidents occur.

Teachers are responsible for: -

- Being alert to social dynamics in their class
- Being available for pupils who wish to report bullying
- Providing follow-up support after bullying incidents
- Being alert to possible bullying situations, particularly exclusion from friendship groups, and that they inform the pupil's Phase Leader of such observations
- Refraining from gender stereotyping when dealing with bullying
- Understanding the composition of pupil groups, showing sensitivity to those who have been the victims of bullying
- Reporting any instances of bullying once they have been approached by a pupil for support
- Working with parents and pupils to address any reports of bullying.

The LSAs and Pastoral Support Assistant are responsible for: -

- Offering emotional support to victims of bullying
- Alerting the relevant teachers and Phase Leaders regarding any incidents of bullying.

Parents are responsible for: -

- Informing their child's teacher if they have any concerns that their child is the victim of bullying or involved in bullying in any way
- Being watchful of their child's behaviour, attitude and characteristics and informing the relevant member of staff of any changes.

Pupils are responsible for: -

- Informing a member of staff if they witness bullying or are a victim of bullying
- Not making counter-threats if they are victims of bullying
- Walking away from dangerous situations and avoiding involving other pupils in incidents
- Keeping evidence of cyber bullying and informing a member of staff should they fall victim to cyber bullying.

5. Statutory implications

The school understands that, under the Equality Act 2010, it has a responsibility to: -

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimization and any other conduct prohibited by the act
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it

- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

The school understands that, under the Human Rights Act (HRA) 1998 it could have charges brought against it if it allows the rights of children and young people at the school to be breached by failing to take bullying seriously.

The Head of School will ensure that this policy complies with the HRA; the Head of School understands that they cannot do this without fully involving their teaching staff.

Although bullying itself is not a criminal offence, some types of harassment, threatening behaviour and/or communications may be considered criminal offences: -

- Under the Malicious Communications Act 1988, it is an offence for a person to electronically communicate with another person with the intent to cause distress or anxiety, or in a way which conveys a message which is indecent or grossly offensive, a threat, or contains information which is false and known or believed to be false by the sender
- The Protection from Harassment Act 1997 makes it an offence to knowingly pursue any course of conduct amounting to harassment
- Section 127 of the Communications Act 2003 makes it an offence to send, by means of a public electronic communications network, a message, or other matter, that is grossly offensive or of an indecent, obscene or menacing character. It is unlawful to disseminate defamatory information through any media, including internet sites
- Other forms of bullying which are illegal and should be reported to the police include: violence or assault, theft, repeated harassment or intimidation and hate crimes.

6. Prevention

The school clearly communicates a whole-school commitment to addressing bullying in the form of a written statement which is regularly promoted across the whole school.

All reported or investigated instances of bullying will be investigated by a member of staff.

Staff will encourage pupil cooperation and the development of interpersonal skills using group and pair work.

All types of bullying will be discussed as part of the curriculum.

Diversity, difference and respect for others is promoted and celebrated through various lessons.

Seating plans will be organised and altered in a way that prevents instances of bullying.

Potential victims of bullying are placed in working groups with other pupils who do not abuse or take advantage of others.

Opportunities to extend friendship groups and interactive skills are provided through participation in special events, for example drama productions, sporting activities and cultural groups.

All members of the school are made aware of this policy and their responsibilities in relation to it.

All staff members receive training on identifying and dealing with the different types of bullying.

The teacher supervising the area will speak to pupils to find out the cause of any problems and, ultimately, stop any form of bullying taking place.

Pupils deemed vulnerable, as defined in section two, will meet with their teacher once a week to ensure any problems can be actioned quickly.

All staff will also offer an 'open door' policy allowing pupils to discuss any bullying, whether they are victims or have witnessed an incident.

Before a vulnerable pupil joins the school, the pupil's teacher and the DSL or DDSL will develop a strategy to prevent bullying from happening – this will include giving the pupil a buddy to help integrate them in to the school.

The school will be alert to, and address, any mental health and wellbeing issues amongst pupils, as these can be a cause of bullying behaviour.

The school will be alert to instances of the sharing of indecent imagery of pupils amongst the school cohort, and will evaluate whether the instance is part of normal sexual development or whether it presents a safeguarding concern; the latter instances will be managed in line with the Whole School Safeguarding Policy.

The school will ensure potential perpetrators are given support as required, so their educational, emotional and social development isn't negatively influenced by outside factors, eg mental health issues.

7. Signs of bullying

Staff will be alert to the following signs that may indicate a pupil is a victim of bullying: -

- Being frightened to travel to and from school
- Asking to be driven to school

- Unwillingness to attend school
- Truancy
- Becoming anxious or lacking confidence
- Saying that they feel ill in the morning
- Decreased involvement in school work
- Returning home with torn clothes or damaged possessions
- Missing possessions
- Asking for extra money or stealing
- Cuts or bruises
- Lack of appetite
- Unwillingness to use the internet or mobile devices
- Becoming agitated when receiving calls or text messages
- Lack of eye contact
- Becoming short tempered
- Change in behaviour and attitude at home.

Although the signs outlined above may not be due to bullying, they may be due to deeper social, emotional or mental health issues, so are still worth investigating.

Pupils who display a significant number of these signs are approached by a member of staff, to determine the underlying issues, whether they are due to bullying or other issues.

In addition, staff will be aware of the potential factors that may indicate a person is likely to have bullying behaviours, including, but not limited to, the following: -

- They have experienced mental health problems, which have led to the pupil becoming aggravated
- They have been the victim of domestic abuse
- Their academic performance has started to fall, which has meant they are stressed.

If staff become aware of any factors that could lead to bullying behaviours, they will notify the pupil's teacher, who will investigate the matter and monitor the situation.

8. Staff principles

The school will ensure that prevention is a prominent aspect of its anti-bullying vision.

Staff will treat reports of bullying seriously and they will not ignore signs of suspected bullying.

Unpleasantness from one pupil towards another is always challenged and never ignored.

Staff act immediately when they become aware of a bullying incident; this applies to all staff, not solely teaching staff.

Staff always respect pupils' privacy and information about specific instances of bullying are not discussed with others, unless it is in a setting the victim has given consent to, or there is a safeguarding concern.

If a member of staff believes a pupil is in danger, eg of being hurt, they will inform the DSL or DDSL immediately.

Follow-up support is given to both the victim and bully in the months following any incidents, to ensure all bullying has stopped.

9. Preventing peer-on-peer sexual abuse

The school has a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of peer-on-peer sexual abuse, including sexual harassment and sexual violence.

Sexual harassment refers to unwanted conduct of a sexual nature that occurs online or offline.

Sexual harassment violates a child's dignity and makes them feel intimidated, degraded or humiliated, and can create a hostile, sexualised or offensive environment. If left unchallenged, sexual harassment can create an atmosphere that normalizes inappropriate behaviour and may lead to sexual violence.

Sexual violence refers to the three following offences: -

- Rape: A person (A) commits an offence of rape if he intentionally penetrates the vagina, anus or mouth of another person (B) with his penis. B does not consent to the penetration and A does not reasonably believe that B consents.
- Assault by penetration: A person (A) commits an offence if s/he intentionally penetrates the vagina or anus of another person (B) with a part of her/his body or anything else, the penetration is sexual, B does not consent to the penetration and A does not reasonably believe that B consents.
- Sexual assault: A person (A) commits an offence of sexual assault if s/he intentionally touches another person (B), the touching is sexual, B does not consent to the touching and A does not reasonably believe that B consents.

The school's Whole School Safeguarding Policy outlines our stance on addressing peer-on-peer sexual abuse and the procedures in place will be adhered to if any instances of sexual harassment or sexual violence be uncovered.

To prevent peer-on-peer abuse and address the wider societal factors that can influence behaviour, the school will educate pupils about abuse, its forms and the importance of discussing any concerns and respecting others through the curriculum, assemblies and PSHE lessons.

The school will also ensure that pupils are taught about safeguarding, including online safety, as part of a broad and balanced curriculum in PSHE lessons, RSE and group sessions. Such content will be age and stage of development specific and tackle issues such as the following: -

- Health relationships
- Respectful behaviour
- Gender roles, stereotyping and equality
- Body confidence and self-esteem
- Prejudiced behaviour
- That sexual violence and sexual harassment is always wrong
- Addressing cultures of sexual harassment

All staff will be aware that pupils of any age and sex are capable of abusing their peers and will never tolerate abuse as “banter” or “part of growing up”. Staff will also be aware that peer-on-peer abuse can be manifested in many ways, including sexting, sexual harassment and assault, and hazing/initiation-type violence.

Where a pupil is found to have been involved in harmful sexual behaviour, the school will help the pupil to move forward from the incident by supporting them in adopting more positive behaviour patterns and attitudes.

All staff will be made aware of the heightened vulnerability of pupils with SEND, who are three times more likely to be abused than their peers. Staff will not assume that possible indicators of abuse relate to the pupil’s SEND and will always explore indicators further.

Staff will be aware that LGBTQ+ pupils are more likely to be targeted by their peers. In some cases, pupils who are perceived to be LGBTQ+ whether they are or not, can be just as vulnerable to abuse as LGBTQ+ pupils.

The school's response to boy-on-boy and girl-on-girl sexual violence and sexual harassment will be equally as robust as it is for incidents between children of the opposite sex.

Pupils will be made aware of how to raise concerns or make a report and how any reports will be handled – this includes the process for reporting concerns about friends or peers.

If a child has been harmed, is in immediate danger or is at risk of harm, a referral will be made to children’s social care services (CSCS).

Managing disclosures

Victims will always be taken seriously, reassured, supported and kept safe.

Victims will never be made to feel like they are causing a problem or made to feel ashamed.

If a friend of a victim makes a report or a member of staff overhears a conversation, staff will act – they will never assume that someone else will deal with it. The basic principles remain the same as when a victim reports an incident, however, staff will consider why the victim has not chosen to make a report themselves and the discussion will be handled sensitively and with the help of CSCS where necessary. If staff are in doubt, they will speak to the DSL or DDSL.

The DSL or DDSL will be informed of any allegations of abuse against pupils with SEND. They will record the incident in writing and, working with the AEN Leader, decide what course of action is necessary, with the best interests of the pupil in mind at all times.

Confidentiality

The school will only engage with staff and agencies required to support the victim and/or be involved in any investigation.

If a victim asks the school not to tell anyone about the disclosure, the school will not make this promise.

Even without the victim's consent, the information may still be lawfully shared if it is in the public interest and protects children from harm.

The DSL or DDSL will consider the following when making confidentiality decisions: -

- Parents will be informed unless it will place the victim at greater risk
- If a child is at risk of harm, is in immediate danger or has been harmed, a referral will be made to the CSCS
- Rape, assault by penetration and sexual assaults are crimes – reports containing any such crimes will be passed to the police.

More information regarding the school's stance on preventing peer-on-peer sexual abuse is available in our Whole School Safeguarding Policy.

The school's Pupil Confidentiality Policy will be adhered to at all times.

10. Cyber bullying

The school has an Online Safety Policy in place, which outlines the school's zero-tolerance to cyber bullying.

The school views cyber bullying in the same light as any other form of bullying and will follow the sanctions set out in section 12 of this policy if they become aware of any incidents.

The school will support pupils who have been victims of cyber bullying by holding formal and informal discussions with the pupil about their feelings and whether the bullying has stopped, in accordance with section 13 and section 14 of this policy.

In accordance with the Education Act 2011, the school has the right to examine and delete files from pupils' personal devices, eg mobile phones, where there is good reason to do so. This power applies to all schools and there is no need to have parental consent to search through a young person's mobile phone.

If an electronic device is seized by a member of staff, and there is reasonable grounds to suspect that it contains evidence in relation to an offence, the device must be given to the police as soon as it is reasonably practicable.

If a staff member finds material that they do not suspect contains evidence in relation to an offence, the Head of School will decide whether it is appropriate to delete or retain the material as evidence of a breach of the relevant policies.

The school's Searching, Screening and Confiscation Policy will be followed at all times.

11. Procedures

Minor incidents are reported to the victim's teacher, who investigates the incident, sets appropriate sanctions for the perpetrator and informs the Phase Leader in writing of the incident and outcome. This must also be recorded on CPOMs.

When investigating a bullying incident, the following procedures are adopted: -

- The victim, alleged bully and witnesses are all interviewed separately
- Members of staff ensure that there is no possibility of contact between the pupils being interviewed, including electronic communication
- If a pupil is injured, members of staff should immediately seek or give first aid to the pupil
- A room is used that allows for privacy during interviews
- A witness is used for serious incidents
- If appropriate, the alleged bully, the victim and witnesses, are asked to write down details of the incident; this may need prompting with questions from the member of staff to obtain the full picture

- Premature assumptions are not made as it is important not to be judgmental at this stage
- Members of staff listen carefully to all accounts, being non-confrontational and not attaching blame until the investigation is complete
- All concerned pupils are informed that they must not discuss the interview with other pupils.

Due to the potential for sexist, transphobic, sexual, etc., bullying to be characterised by inappropriate sexual behaviour, staff members involved in dealing with the incident are required to consider whether there is a need for safeguarding processes to be implemented.

12. Sanctions

If the Head of School is satisfied that bullying did take place, the pupil will be helped to understand the consequences of their actions and warned that there must be no further incidents.

The Head of School informs the pupil of the type of sanction to be used in this instance (detentions, service-based activities, etc) and future sanctions if the bullying continues.

If possible, the Head of School will attempt reconciliation and will obtain a genuine apology from the bully. This will either be in writing to the victim (and/or witnesses if appropriate), or face-to-face, but only with the victim's full consent. Discretion is used here; victims will never feel pressured into a face-to-face meeting with the bully.

The perpetrator is made to realise, by speaking once per week with their teacher, that some pupils do not appreciate the distress they are causing and that they should change their behaviour.

Parents are informed of bullying incidents and what action is being taken.

The Phase Leader informally monitors the pupils involved over the next half term.

Where there have been serious or consistent incidents of bullying, the school will act in line with the Exclusion Policy.

13. Support

For a month after the initial complaint of bullying, the teacher holds an informal discussion, on a weekly basis, to check whether the bullying has stopped.

The Phase Leader holds a formal meeting on a monthly basis to check whether the bullying has stopped – these formal meetings will continue to take place once a month until the Phase Leader and victim are confident the bullying has stopped.

If necessary, group dynamics are broken up by members of staff by assigning places in classes.

The victim is encouraged to tell a trusted adult in school if bullying is repeated.

The victim is encouraged to broaden their friendship groups by joining lunchtime or after-school clubs or activities.

The school, particularly the DSL or DDSL or ELSA or other trusted adult, will work with the victim to build resilience, eg by offering emotional therapy.

The school realises that bullying may be an indication of underlying mental health issues. The school will work with the perpetrator regarding any underlying mental health or emotional wellbeing problems.

14. Follow-up support

The progress of both the bully and the victim are monitored by their teachers.

One-on-one sessions to discuss how the victim and bully are progressing may be appropriate.

If appropriate, follow-up correspondence is arranged with parents one month after the incident.

Pupils who have been bullied are supported in the following ways: -

- Being listened to
- Having an immediate opportunity to meet with their Phase Leader or a trusted member of staff of their choice
- Being reassured
- Being offered continued support
- Being offered counselling, where appropriate.

Pupils who have bullied others are supported in the following ways: -

- Receiving a consequence for their actions
- Being able to discuss what happened
- Being helped to reflect on why they became involved
- Being helped to understand what they did wrong and why they need to change their behaviour
- Appropriate assistance from parents.

In cases where the effects of bullying are so severe that the pupil cannot successfully reintegrate back into the school, the Head of School and DSL or DDSL will look to transfer the pupil to another mainstream school.

Where a child has developed such complex needs that alternative provision is required, the pupil who has been the victim of bullying, their parents, the Head of School and DSL or DDSL will meet to discuss the use of alternative provision.

15. Bullying outside of school

The Head of School has a specific statutory power to discipline pupils for poor behaviour outside of the school premises. Section 89(5) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 gives the Head of School the power to regulate pupils' conduct when they are not on school premises and therefore not under the lawful charge of a school staff member.

Teachers have the power to discipline pupils for misbehaving outside of the school premises. This can relate to any bullying incidents occurring anywhere off the school premises, such as on school or public transport, outside the local shops, or in a town or village centre.

Where bullying outside school is reported to school staff, it is investigated and acted on.

In all cases of misbehavior or bullying, members of staff can only discipline the pupil on school premises, or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of the member of staff, eg on a school trip.

The Head of School is responsible for determining whether it is appropriate to notify the police of the action taken against a pupil.

If the misbehavior could be of a criminal nature, or poses a serious threat to a member of the public, the police are always informed.

16. Monitoring and review

This policy is reviewed every two years by the Head of School and the DSL or DDSL.
